Lewis Quotes Exposures

Mr. Adams's exposure of the activity of one Kosofsky under the name of "Houtellier & Co.," "Brokaw" and "Filene," the latter the name of a Boston him, and the operations of Libernan under the name of Forsyth, were used by Mr. Lewis to show how farreaching is the practice of some merchants in the use of family names not their own for the purpose of fooling the public and at the same time injuring the exputation of those whose names they borrow—to use a polite tion of special revenue bonds and (5) to $500,000 additional for the instalments due to the sinking fund of the City of New York."

What He Stands For

"VOU ask what road I propose to travel?

"These are the milestones which mark it.

"An Executive responsible to the whole nation.

"A Cabinet chosen from the ablest Americans.

"A foreign policy that stands courteously but firmly for American rights.

"A flag that protects the American in his lawful rights wherever his legitimate business may take him.

"A preparation for trade competition which shall protect all groups of American workmen.

"A government oversight of business which will fearlessly eliminate abuses, but will act on the assumption that the average business man is honest.

"And finally a domestic policy which looks to industrial peace, and to sound and permanent prosperity based upon the development of American trade and the building up of American industries.

"We Americans are in one boat. You cannot strike a blow at one group without injury to all. Common justice and fair play will settle our difficulties if suspicion and bitterness are let alone. These are the principles by which I propose to be guided."
